(Special to The Herald.) Fremout, Neb., April 19.-Hon. G. W. E. Dorsey and Miss Laura Hodge of this city were married this afternoon at the residence of the bride's mother, Mrs. Caroline E. Hodge, by Rev. John Dahne of the Congregational church. Invitations were given only to relatives and a few intimate personal friends of the contracting parties. The bride has been for sometime clerk and stenographer for Mr. Dorsey at his Fremont office. She was one of the organizers of the Women's club and has always taken an active part in its work, and also a leader in social circles. During the last ten years Mr. Dorsey has spent most of his time in Salt Lake and in Boise, Ida., where he is interested in milning properties, but has maintained an office in Fremont.
